COOPERATIVE DIVORCE AGREEMENT

The parties and their respective attorneys agree to handle this divorce on a cooperative basis. While they understand that this agreement is merely a statement of intent and not legally enforceable, they both commit in good faith to do the following:

- Cooperate by acting civilly at all times and by responding promptly to all reasonable requests for information from the other party.

- Cooperate by fully disclosing all relevant financial information as required by law.

- Cooperate by obtaining joint appraisals and/or other expert opinions before obtaining individual appraisals or expert opinions.

- Cooperate by obtaining meaningful expert input (e.g, child specialist) before requesting a custody study or the appointment of a guardian ad litem

- Cooperate in good faith negotiation sessions, including 4-way sessions where appropriate, to reach fair compromises based on relevant information.

- Cooperate by conducting ourselves at all times in a respectful, civil and professional manner.

Both parties and attorneys acknowledge that this agreement cannot be used against either party or attorney.

_____ _____

Husband Date Wife Date

_____ _____

Attorney for Husband Date Attorney for Wife Date

© 2004 Divorce Cooperation Institute, Inc.